

The Sinclair Media Group's attempt to smear John Kerry by forcing its stations to air "Stolen Honor", without airing a balancing piece, is not in the public interest. Sinclair should be directed to air an ad of John Kerry's choice whenever SH airs, and in the event that they do not comply, should have their broadcasting license revoked and be heavily fined.